[NEW] Understanding Mechanisms of Health Risk Behavior Change in Children and Adolescents

WHO: Faith-based or community-based organizations, for-profit or non-profit organizations, universities, colleges, hospitals, and laboratories, units of Federal, State and local governments, and Domestic or foreign institutions/organizations are eligible to apply.

WHAT: To promote optimal physical and mental health in children and adolescents. This may be accomplished by research to enhance our understanding of the origin, evolution, and termination of health risk behaviors and, ultimately, by the development of effective prevention and intervention strategies designed to maintain healthy behaviors and prevent health risk behaviors.

WHEN: Applications due at various times until the year 2007. For further information, see the full program announcement.
